Content: Discussion of USA response to the sarin gas attack in Syria as a false pretext to launch missile attacks

Transcript of conversation from tapped teleconference line (NSA transcription from September 3, 2013)

Three following heads of state were present on the call:

- (1) Russian President Vladimir Putin
- (2) Chinese President Xi Jinping
- (3) Iranian Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei

Telephonic conversation began at 5:44 UTC

.....
Mr.Putin opened up the conversation with a long introduction as follows:

"Comrades, the Americans are still determined to launch missile strikes on Syria based on fabricated evidence around the sarin gas attack. They themselves provided all the logistical support for those chemical weapons releases with the assistance of Israel and France. Being a former colony, France had all the coordinates established from previous covert operations. The MOSSAD also had several agents involved in the conveyance of the sarin gas from Saudi Arabia into Syria. The rebels were used unwittingly to carry out the actual attack, but had no idea of what was happening. How could they ... would they want to die in the middle of the covert op? Of course, the Saudis also had their moneymen on the scene paying off whoever had to be paid for the sake of silence and compliance.

"We wonder just how stupid Obama and Kerry think we are. Do they really think we will allow them to turn Syria into another Libya? As if we will give up our only naval base in the Mediterranean at Tartus. Boy this kid doesn't have too much between the ears, does he Xi?

"Anyway, what we have to do to prevent these amateurs from putting a match to the Mideast tinderbox is trick them into doing the right thing. Their internal politics and foreign affairs have degenerated into such a sordid, sad and self-serving process that anything or anybody can get chewed up and spit out without knowing what the hell happened. Therefore, I propose we move quickly to give these diplomatic children a way out. You know, they're way too stupid to figure it out for themselves. That Kerry looks like he's halfway between comatose and catatonic ... you gotta see him up close in a face-to-face meeting. Kind of like a cross between Herman Munster and Frankenstein! Pretty darn scary when you can lie with such a straight face!!! Especially when those lies lead to so much unnecessary carnage and bloodshed.

"As for Obama, we need to school him on how to address other heads of state. He seems to lack any knowledge of the written and unspoken protocols. We're talking REAL wet behind the ears. Super duper neophyte calling me a "bored kid". Wonder which lab he was developed in as most of those test tube politicians are given some serious training at very young ages. Boy, did they break the mold after he was hatched! What a proverbial piece of work.

"I've got much more to share, Comrades, some of which is top secret, but let's hear from you both.

Mr. Jinping responds with the following comments:

"Apparently Americans believe they function as United Nations. They no need approval from Security Council anymore to attack anyone, anywhere, anytime, anyhow.

We still trying to figure out who gave them that power.
We know for sure Elvis is dead.
Anyway, we are watching them very closely to see where power comes from.

Someone once said on the internet, and I quote:

'USA has unlawfully arrogated power unto itself to kill anybody they want to anywhere, anytime, anyhow. Sound a lot like the SUPREME BEING to me!'

"Anyway, our strategy is more of the same. Sit back. Watch our back. And continue to sell all the Treasuries we can for 5 cents on the dollar. We're down to about two trillion, so we will be very patient like we Chinese always are.

Ayatollah Ali Khamenei then chimed in as follows:

"Yes, these Americans are quite a bunch of cowards, aren't they? They constantly are committing atrocities and blaming others. Then they gang up with Britain or France or NATO, and always with Israel, to carry out their covert agenda wreaking death and destruction EVERYWHERE they go.

"What must we do to unveil their nefarious deeds this time around? Hasn't the world seen enough of their horrible handiwork. I mean Good God, or rather, Allahu Akbar, when will the people of the world wake up?! How many false flag attacks do the other nations have to witness before they start fingering the parties responsible, and drag them before the Hague. These devils need to be sent to the the waterless region for the rest of eternity. Allahu Akbar !!!

"I'm with you, Vlad. We need to trick these imbeciles into doing the right thing. How about we make an offer to Bashar to allow his chemical weapons to be confiscated. That will at least postpone the immediate hailstorm of cruise missiles the friendly Americans have planned. By the way, we wonder if Assad really has any chemical weapons or have the WMD of Iraq now been found in Syria.
Allahu Akbar !!!

President Putin then responds:

"You guys have really been great ... you saw the false flag operation from the very beginning just like we did. I mean these Americans just won't give up, will they? Even after destroying the whole country of Iraq on the basis of false data and fabricated docs about WMD, here they are again trying the same ole game again in Syria?! Let's face it, they do have the false flag MO down pat. Can you believe these clowns (You saw Obama the rodeo clown at the Missouri State Fair, didn't you?) got away (NOT) with 9/11. I mean Building #7 was pulled down the very same day and it wasn't even hit by a plane. You gotta love those Americans for being so hopelessly addicted to TV. You can tell them just about anything and they'll believe it. However, that's all about to change because what happens in those 50 states has too much influence around the world for the rest of us to bear.

"Are you with us Xi? How about you, Ali?

"From this point forward, where it concerns the Americans and their allies, you're either with us or against us. Otherwise they will just continue their little divide and conquer game ALL DAY LONG. Don't know about you guys but this Hegelian Dialectic has got us bathing in wodka. What next -- are they going to trigger a volcano in the Arctic that melts the whole ice cap and then claim all the oil and gas up there, too? Wouldn't put it past BP, Exxon Mobil, Chevron, Total, Royal Dutch Shell and all the other supermajors, just like they've done everywhere else on the planet.

"The bottom line is that Obama and Kerry and Powers and Rice are nothing but unpaid barkers for the Oil & Gas Industry. Nothing but hacks and flacks, shills and lackeys. US foreign policy revolves around oil and gas reserves, conduits, refineries, anywhere they can gain control. Look at what they did in Ossetia by goading Georgia into a military assault on innocent civilians. These guys are brutal and will do absolutely anything for black gold. You talk about the ravages of Black Gold Fever!! This crowd is delirious with bad judgment so hell-bent are they on capturing all the world's reserves by stealth, or by outright military aggression, or by slight of hand, or by premeditated duplicity.

"By the way, I did talk to one of the expert scientists at the Serbsky State Scientific Center for Social and Forensic Psychiatry here in Moscow. They told us that the Americans are dealing with a very, very serious addiction. Some of them, like in Louisiana, are so addicted that they have a cup of oil in the morning instead of coffee. Then they turn around and have a shot of natural gas in the evening before bed. Hey, we do wodka, they do petrochemical cocktails. To each his own.

President Xi then added:

"You can not blame them for trying to escape from the likes of Obama and Kerry, Biden and McDonough, Reid and Pelosi, Power and Rice, Clinton and Clinton. These guys (and gals) are as scary as it gets !!! Look what we just received from US diplomatic mission in Beijing in their latest written invitation back to negotiating table?

President Putin then quickly changed the subject as follows:

"Surely you both know by now what this whole Syrian op is all about ... ..
Here's the intro to a recently published piece that our FSB has been vetting:

"Is the reported willingness of Arab Gulf states to fund a U.S. military campaign in Syria really about major oil and gas interests that run through the country?"

The potential for trillions of dollars of energy revenue in deals that snake

through Syrian territory may be a motivating factor for the U.S., Russia, Turkey and Arab states in the current Syria crisis."

Ayatollah Ali Khamenei then unexpectedly and excitedly interrupted Mr. Putin as follows:

Before you reveal any more highly classified information, perhaps we ought to have IT security check for any NSA PRISM .... (phone lines of all three parties go dead)

Conference termination:

Without explanation or apology, the call was then ended abruptly at 6:34 UTC. There were no technical difficulties noted.
